

PREFACE

In consultation with the local California Faculty Association, the Academic Senate, and the Office of Personnel Services, this handbook has been prepared by the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs to provide information about the University and to facilitate your employment at California State University, Bakersfield. Questions concerning University policies and procedures not specifically addressed in this handbook may be directed to your department office, the office of your school dean, or the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.