

Effective Grading Strategies

Friday, January 14th 3:30 to 5pm
Hosted at the TLC

This workshop presents different strategies to give feedback to students and to be efficient in time spent on grading. Come learn about the grading process as a powerful tool for student learning.

- What is the grading process?
- Setting standards and criteria
- Improve the connection between your course objectives, assignments, and teaching strategies
- Identify rubrics to grade effectively, efficiently, and fairly

This interactive workshop is based on the book, Effective Grading: A Tool for Learning and Assessment, by Walvoord and Anderson and published by Jossey-Bass 1998.
