This part-time, temporary, position reports directly to the designated School Academic Advising Coordinator. Working under supervision, the Academic Staff Advisor will be responsible for providing consistent, accurate, academic advising services to current and prospective students. The Academic Staff Advisor interviews and advises undergraduate and transfer students regarding information, procedures and academic requirements of a specific program or major and assists students in exploring careers, evaluating academic abilities, and setting goals and is expected to provide academic advising that facilitates student success, persistence and degree completion in a timely manner.

DUTIES:
- Provide communication through one on one appointments, daily electronic communications, phone calls, and group academic advising sessions.
• Work with students to evaluate and understand their academic records and setting goals for academic progress to ensure completion of their academic programs.
• Informing students on university, college and program level academic policies and procedures.
• Assists with campus retention and graduation efforts.
• Meet with students on a regular basis to track their academic success; identifies options for students to satisfy degree requirements.
• Under the supervision of the Academic Advising Coordinator, develop action plans for the students to explore alternative careers and related majors.
• Monitors academic progress of students; analyzes progress reports from instructors; assists in determining eligibility and satisfactory progress toward degree; identifies current and potential needs or problem areas (e.g., study skills, tutoring) and refers students to appropriate campus resources for assistance.
• Meet with students to advise and direct students to applicable retention services such as tutoring, student health, counseling, financial aid and career services.
• Work collaboratively with other academic units and services in the school and throughout the university to facilitate comprehensive student support.
• Collect, organize, and enter data to address issues relating to persistence; monitors and tracks all student records to ensure persistence in enrollment, good academic standing, and appropriate progress toward graduation.
• Update the student's degree audit report (DARS), GradesFirst and/or PeopleSoft records and notations, and maintain student files to accurately reflect advising session interactions and progress on or toward degree completion.
• Maintains student files and records; documents all pertinent student information; updates computerized information system regarding changes to student status
• Participates in preparation of orientations and presents academic information to new students and parents during orientation. Performs other related duties as assigned. The duties listed in this job description are intended only as illustrations of the various types of work that may be performed.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS: Requires equivalent to graduation from a four year college or university in one of the behavioral sciences, public or business administration or a job related field (attach copy of degree/transcripts to application) and 1 year of experience in a position that is student service centered. Must have excellent ability to interpret and apply policies and procedures independently, and use sound judgment and discretion to act when precedents do not exist. Skills in interviewing and proven ability to communicate effectively, both verbally and in writing. Excellent ability to exercise confidentiality, discretion, and independent judgment and to handle highly sensitive interpersonal issues. Must have excellent interpersonal skills and be able to establish and maintain effective working relationships; demonstrated ability to work closely with a diverse population and have the ability to relate well with faculty, students, and staff on and off campus. Thorough knowledge of computers and competency of applications (e.g., word processing software programs, presentations and spreadsheets).

SCREENING: Only those applicants possessing experience most directly related to the immediate needs of the office will be invited to appear before a Qualifications Appraisal Board for the purpose of appraising training, experience and interest in the position.

BACKGROUND CHECK: A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

SENSITIVE POSITION: Sensitive positions are designated by the CSU as requiring heightened scrutiny of individuals holding the position, based on potential for harm to children, concerns for the safety and security of the people, animals, or property, or heightened risk of financial loss to the CSU or individuals in the university community.

MANDATED REPORTER: The person holding this position is considered a “mandated reporter” under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

DESIGNATED POSITION: If the duties of this position include participation in decisions that may have a material financial benefit to the incumbent, the selected candidate will be required to file Conflict of Interest Form 700: Statement of Economic Interest when they first occupy the position, and on an annual basis, complete ethics training within 6 months of appointment, and attend this training every other year thereafter.
GENERAL INFORMATION: It is the policy of California State University; Bakersfield to hire only United States citizens and aliens lawfully authorized to work in the United States. All new employees will be required to present documentation verifying their right to accept employment. You will also be requested to present a social security card at the time of initial appointment in compliance with state payroll regulations. State regulations require that every state employee sign the Oath of Allegiance prior to commencing the duties of his/her State employment, except legally employed non-citizens. These individuals are required to sign the Declaration of Permission to Work.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: Official California State University, Bakersfield application forms must be completed in full and received in the Human Resources Office by 5:00 p.m. on/or postmarked by the specified closing date, unless otherwise indicated.
