Director's Message

In 2000, the C.A.M.P. grant was funded by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Migrant Education. In these past 13 years, we have provided services to over 900 migrant students. On behalf of the C.A.M.P. staff, it is a privilege to be part of your life and journey as you move forward with your education. All of you C.A.M.P. students are unique and bring a special gift to our C.A.M.P. family. All of you have different experiences and challenges, however, the important part is that you remember that we are here to guide you, support you, and most importantly be here when you need us.

Best Wishes on your first year at CSUB! Dr. Escobedo

C.A.M.P. Students who Attended the 2012 Summer Program

The C.A.M.P. Summer Program is designed to assist students in their transition to the university environment. Students partake in university level courses, interact with faculty, and begin to develop new friendships who will be part of their educational journey at CSUB. This is the 13th C.A.M.P. cohort of students who have joined our C.A.M.P. Family.

C.A.M.P. Scores a Hockey Night

Shoot the Puck! The crowd cried during an exciting game of hockey. On October 26, 2012, C.A.M.P. students were sponsored by PG&E to attend a suspenseful hockey game. While indulging in a delicious hot dog bite, C.A.M.P. students cheered on the Bakersfield Condors as they took the lead, scoring 2-1 against the Las Vegas Wranglers.

As spectators watched the jumbo screens during the intermissions, second year C.A.M.P. student, Cristian Blanco had his three seconds of fame showing off his “gangam style” moves.

What a fun evening spent with my C.A.M.P. familia, many described it as “good times with the CAMPers, the fights and wall smashing.”

A Special Thank You to Kristen Doud, PG&E Community Relations Representative, for selecting our program to attend this memorable event.
On December 4, 2012 students made their way to the Ahmanson theatre in Los Angeles, CA to see the winner of the 2011 Tony Award for Best Musical “Anything Goes”. Exposing students to new cultural enrichment activities is one of our program goals. The students are exposed to new type of entertainment.

The singing and the dancing captured the interest of the students. One agreement was the “amazing dancing, they where great.” states Maria Tinoco, C.A.M.P. student. “When is the next one…?” asks Steven Tamayo, C.A.M.P. student. As a whole this romantic comedy was a splash and anyone who was on board with us truly enjoyed this experience.

DHS Secretary's Honors Program

http://www.dhs.gov/secretarys-honors-program

The Secretary’s Honors Program (SHP) is a highly competitive, premier program for exceptional recent graduates looking for a career at DHS. Qualified candidates apply for a limited number of slots and are selected based on their academic performance, experience and other criteria. Those selected for the program will be offered a variety of incentives and enhanced career opportunities including Department rotations, mentorships, focused on-the-job training and inclusion in various professional development programs.

Individuals who possess graduate or undergraduate degrees may apply for the following fellowships within the SHP:

- Information Technology Fellows – a one-year program designed for graduate-level recent graduates with computer science related academic backgrounds and career paths who have a clear interest in, and commitment to, excellence in the operation and management of information technology.

- Cyber Fellows – a two-year program for recent college graduates designed to develop technically skilled cyber professionals across DHS. Through rotational assignments, participants see how each DHS Component agency collaborates on cyber-related issues and works first-hand on critical issues or incidents in a fast-paced, growing environment. Candidates are encouraged to participate in the Cyber security Internship Program prior to applying for the Honors Program.

- Honors Attorneys – a two-year program designed for highly qualified third-year law students, fourth-year students graduating from four-year programs, combination programs or LL.M. programs immediately after law school, and those applying from judicial clerkships immediately after law school. Candidates will have the opportunity to work at multiple legal offices within the Office of the General Counsel.

- Policy Fellows – a one-year program for recent graduates with either a Master’s or a Bachelor’s degree. Candidates will provide direct assistance to top policymakers throughout DHS and will work side-by-side with experts in policy-focused areas and offices.

- Management Fellows – a one-year program for recent graduates with either a Master’s or a Bachelor’s degree in business, finance, organizational development or human resources.

- Emergency Management Fellows – a one-year program for recent graduates with either a Master’s or a Bachelor’s degree. Candidates will have an academic background that prepares graduates with strategic organizational management processes used to protect critical assets from hazards, man-made and natural disasters and facilitate recovery operations.
