Program Description
The Master of Arts in Sociology program is an advanced study of human social relations. It requires in depth study of institutional, structural, and historical patterns that govern human social behavior. The scope of study at the graduate level includes micro, macro, and global perspectives. The program is designed for students seeking career advancement, pursuing a career in community college teaching, or preparation for doctoral program. For that reason, the program offers three options or “tracks”: a Thesis Option, a Teaching Option, and a Special Project Option. The program of study is enhanced by opportunities for qualified students to work on campus as a Research Assistant, as Teaching Assistants in the Department or in area community colleges, or work in the community via Internship programs.

The MA in Sociology program has common admission and continuation requirements for all graduate students in the program, but different requirements for course work, advancement to candidacy, and graduation, depending on the graduating option chosen by each student.

The academic calendar at CSUB is a quarter system (Fall, Winter, and Spring Quarters). Students are encouraged to start the graduate program in the Fall Quarter of each academic year. However, the Sociology graduate program will consider applications for Winter and Spring Quarters. The Sociology Graduate Program Coordinator, with the advice of the faculty, will consider all completed applications when they are submitted and will notify the candidate of her/his admission status prior to the commencement of the quarter for which the student has been accepted.

Classification of Graduate Students
Classified Standing
Students who meet the admissions requirements (above) will be admitted as Classified Graduate Students.

Conditionally Classified Standing
Students may be admitted to the graduate program under Conditionally Classified Standing (a requirement for financial aid) following consultation with the Sociology Graduate Program Coordinator and demonstrating an ability and commitment to complete an MA in Sociology. Students admitted to the Sociology MA program under Conditionally Classified Standing will have specified conditions, e.g., successfully completing designated courses, including prerequisite course, passing designated examinations, etc. Upon satisfactory completion of all specified conditions, students will be administratively advanced by the Graduate Program Coordinator to Classified Standing.
Advancement to Candidacy
Advancement to Candidacy requires the following:
1. Classified status.
2. Completion of 25-quarter units of graduate work at CSUB applied toward the MA in Sociology, all of which are at the 500-level or above and with a GPA of 3.0 or better.
3. A Thesis Proposal approved by the Thesis Committee and filed with the Department; or a Project Proposal approved by the student’s committee and filed with the Department; or an approved proposal for the Teaching Track Option.

Graduate Advisor
It is the student’s responsibility, in consultation with the appropriate faculty members, to choose a graduate advisor, choose an MA track or fields of study, and organize a thesis or examination committee leading to Advancement to Candidacy.

Academic Advising
Until an advisor is selected, the Graduate Program Coordinator will serve as interim advisor. Upon admission, however, the student should select an advisor as soon as possible. Failure to select an advisor may result in the Graduate Program Coordinator assigning the student an advisor.

Transfer of Credit
Students may transfer up to 13.5-quarter units (9 semester units) of credit from another school.

Continuation
Continuation in the program is dependent upon the following:
1. The maintenance of a GPA of 3.0 or higher for all graduate work at CSUB.
2. Achieving no grade less than a “C” (2.0) in any course applied to the MA in Sociology, and no more than one course with a grade of “C” (2.0) will be accepted toward the MA in Sociology.
3. Continuous enrollment (being registered for credit-bearing study for three out of four consecutive academic quarters). Students who have not completed all requirements for the thesis must register every quarter.
4. Students failing to meet these stipulations may be dropped from the program. To re-enter, a student will be required to apply for re-admission to the program.
5. Prior to completion of 20 units, a student must complete the following:
