Lower Division

LBST 299 Individual Study (1-5)
Exploration of a topic through individual study with a faculty sponsor. Prerequisite: Consent of the instructor, who will serve as sponsor, and approval of the Director of the Liberal Studies Program. Offered on a credit, no-credit basis only. [By petition].

Upper Division

LBST 385 Educational Policy and Diversity (5)
Universal education for all is a cornerstone of democracy. Exalted, criticized and reinvented, public education continues to play a crucial role in fostering "equal opportunity" - an ideal held dearly by many in the U.S. This course examines the role played by education in mitigating the differences in social and economic opportunities and outcomes by race, gender and class. Prerequisite: A course which included field experience in an elementary classroom.

LBST 477 Special Studies in Liberal Studies (1-5)
Topics will be announced prior to registration. May be repeated for different course content.

LBST 496 Internship in Liberal Studies (3)
The course consists of supervised field experiences in an educational activity with students aged 5-12 in the academic area of the student’s concentration in Liberal Studies.

LBST 497 Cooperative Education (5)
The Community Service program offers a sponsored learning experience in a work setting, integrated with a field analysis seminar. The field experience is contracted by the Cooperative Education office on an individual basis, subject to approval by the program director. The field experience, including the seminar and reading assignments, is supervised by the cooperative education coordinator and with the faculty liaison (or course instructor, working with the field supervisor). Offered on a credit, no-credit basis only.

LBST 499 Individual Study (1-5)
Exploration of a topic through individual study with a faculty sponsor. Prerequisite: Consent of the instructor, who will serve as sponsor, and approval of the Director of the Liberal Studies program. Offered on a credit, no-credit basis only. [By petition].
