

Founded in 1898, Capital Insurance Group enjoys a reputation for providing over 100 years of excellent service and quality products to our customers. We specialize in "main street" commercial lines and personal lines insurance products and services distributed through the independent agency system. Ranked among the top 50 insurance writers in the state of California, our business is written in California, Nevada, Oregon, and Arizona. We are dedicated to a conservative underwriting philosophy and superior service to our customers.

We are currently recruiting for a class of Claim Service Representative Trainees for openings in our Service Center located in Bakersfield, CA. These positions are entry-level Claims Representative assignments that investigate automobile claims and provide benefits and settlement to our policyholders and claimants. The work environment is fast paced and challenging, but it is also friendly and exciting. Our new class of trainees will commence study within the next several weeks.

Training Program--All selected trainees will be provided with a ninety-day comprehensive training program that includes book study and tutorials involving coverage, investigation, and insurance regulation as well as at-the-desk customer service and claims handling skills.
