

HANDSHAKE DISCLAIMER

The Center for Career Education and Community Engagement (CECE) utilizes Handshake as a platform to provide job listings for the convenience of CSUB undergraduate, graduate, and alumni. The university does not endorse or recommend employers, and a posting does not constitute an endorsement or recommendation.

The university explicitly makes no representations or guarantees about job listings or the accuracy of the information provided by the employer. The university is not responsible for safety, wages, working conditions, or any other aspect of off-campus employment without limitation. It is the responsibility of students to perform due diligence in researching employers when applying for or accepting private, off-campus employment and to thoroughly research the facts and reputation of each organization to which they are applying. Students should be prudent and use common sense and caution when applying for or accepting any position.

CECE reserves the right to determine the eligibility of a posting and to delete postings deemed unsuitable for our students. We will not post jobs that appear to discriminate against applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, age, national origin, veteran status, sexual orientation, disability, gender identity or gender. All positions requiring a fee for training or participation in a work experience or for any other reason are unacceptable and will not be posted. Any position that does not support the interests of the University or our students will not be posted.

Both students and employers are encouraged to provide feedback to our office regarding their experience through the use of our service. For additional information regarding our services, contact the CECE office via phone at 661-654-3033 or email us at career@csub.edu.
