

Center for Community Partnerships & Service Learning (CPSL)
California State University, Bakersfield
46 MECC
9001 Stockdale Highway
Bakersfield, California 93311-1099

Student Evaluation of Intern Assignment

Quarter/Year: _____
Student: _____ Date: _____
Immediate Supervisor: _____ Title: _____
Company/Agency: _____

This evaluation will be important in determining the value of your work experience, both for yourself and for future students in future assignments. The evaluation should be honest and indicate problems as well as your progress during the period. Please add your evaluative remarks on the reverse side so that your Coordinator can counsel with you and the organization to improve and maintain the program.

Place and "X" next to the appropriate category.

Educational value of assignment

- Exceptional opportunity
- Worthwhile Experience
- Not very useful, might help some
- Probably of no value

Supervisor's attitude towards student

- Encouraged spirit of inquiry, helpful
- Willing, but did not go out of his way
- Seemed to see students as "in the way"
- Actively rejected students

Relation of experience to major

- Very closely, clarifies topics
- Usually illustrates theory
- Seldom offers opportunity to relate
- No relationship exists

Opportunities to relate to other personnel

- Open, friendly, supportive atmosphere
- Permitted, but not encouraged
- Generally unfriendly
- Student kept out of the group

My attitude

- Showed real enthusiasm and initiative
- Willing when told to do something
- Lacked interest and initiative
- Refused all but assigned duties

My work habits

- Looked for additional things to do
- Checked work; neat, accurate and on time
- Regular and punctual in attendance
- Showed up for work

My technical skills

- Were more than required
- Were adequate
- Were less than they should have been

Supervisor's availability when needed for questions

- Always
- Sometimes
- Hardly ever
- Never, had to seek help elsewhere

Your relationship with your supervisor

- Good
- Fair
- Poor

Position's relationship to initial job description

- Experience closely matches that offered
- Experience mostly matches that offered
- Little relationship exists
- Extremely unsatisfactory

My full potential

- Eagerly sought to gain maximum form experience
- Usually tired to get the most from the experience
- Did not do anything extra
- Did as little as possible

Salary in relation to requirements, experience and academic level

- Position well paid
- Adequate pay
- Definitely underpaid for services expected
- Situation exploits students

Overall self-rating to other full-time employees

- Above average
- Average
- Below average

Supervisor's willingness/capability of answering questions

- Helpful and informative
- Somewhat informative
- Passively kept to himself
- Don't know – I did not seek much help

- Unhelpful, uncommunicative

Supervisor's receptiveness to new ideas you might have had

- Implemented suggestions
- Gave reasonable thought without implementation
- Merely paid lip service
- Did not want to hear them
- Does not apply

Briefly describe Work Period Assignment(s).

Briefly describe how your work assignments relate to academic courses taken in school.

Objectives:

Are you experiencing any problems on the job?

Briefly describe any improvements you feel are needed with your placement and/or the program.

Please evaluate your overall performance:

Outstanding

Above Average

Average

Below Average

Unsatisfactory

Student's Signature: _____ Date: _____

For the confidential use of California State University, Bakersfield only.