Please evaluate the work performance of the student that you supervised. For course credit, the student will submit this form along with a paper that the student writes about his or her learning from the experience. In addition to providing a verification of the student's applied experience, your candid feedback may provide information that will help the student identify both strengths and weaknesses. Please feel free to discuss any of your comments with the student. If you have any questions or concerns, contact the CSUB Center for Community Partnerships & Service Learning (CPSL) at (661) 654-2100.
