Location

The University Counselor Training Clinic is located at California State University, Bakersfield 9001 Stockdale Highway, on the 2nd floor of the Education Building - Room 200

Enter the University from Don Hart Drive (the West entrance off Stockdale Highway). The Education Building site is in the center of the campus directly west of the red brick sidewalk. Use the outside wooden staircase to enter the building (handicapped entrance through main ground floor doors).

Hours

The Clinic is open Monday through Thursday, afternoons and evenings, during the school year, except for December. The Clinic is closed during the summer and staff will begin taking appointments about September 1st. All counseling sessions are by appointment only. Appointments may be scheduled by calling our voice mail at 654-3402. Leave your name and telephone number(s) where you can be reached day and evening, and a short message. The Clinic Manager will return your call as soon as possible.

Fees

Fees for counseling services are $25 for the first session and $10 per session thereafter. Fees are used to support the operation of the Clinic and are collected at the beginning of each session. Should our fees impose a hardship, feel free to discuss with the Clinic Manager or your counselor the possibility of alternative arrangements. No client will be denied services because of his or her current inability to pay.

You also need to obtain a $2.00 parking pass from one of the meters located at each entrance to the campus. The lots are often crowded, so please come early.

CSUB Students

Since California State University, Bakersfield Student Services provides excellent free and confidential counseling for all who are enrolled, students of the University are asked to contact the University Counseling Center (654-3366) for services.
