Application Deadline Date: Review begins on December 2, 2015. Priority will be given to applications received by this date. Position to remain open until filled.

Description: Applications are invited for a tenure-track position in Computer Science at the assistant or associate professor level, beginning August 2016.

Qualifications: Applicants must hold a BS degree, preferably in computer science or software engineering, and a Ph.D. in computer science, software engineering, computer science and engineering, or in a closely related discipline with extensive background in computer science. Some familiarity with the ABET accreditation process is desirable. The applicants are expected to have excellent academic credentials and a proven ability to teach courses and laboratory sessions effectively, maintaining strong student-faculty interaction. A major responsibility will be to assist in the expansion of the existing degree program in computer science. The successful candidate will be expected to teach courses, conduct research, supervise students, and participate in appropriate levels of service to the department, school, university, and the profession.

Priority will be given to applicants who specialize in computational theory, algorithms, distributed and parallel computation, software engineering, and computer architecture. However, outstanding candidates from other areas within the field of computer science will also be considered.

Background Check: A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Mandated Reporter: The person holding this position is considered a “mandated reporter” under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

Application: The application must include an application letter detailing the candidate’s qualifications and experience relative to the position description, a statement of teaching philosophy, a research agenda, curriculum vitae, copies of undergraduate and graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation.

Documents should be attached in PDF format and emailed directly to ceecs_position@csub.edu with the position reference number from above in the subject line.

For questions, contact Erika Moreno at (661) 654-3082 or by email to ceecs_position@csub.edu.

Compensation: Commensurate with experience and qualifications. Research startup funds are available. Release time for establishing a research program within the department is generally available during the early years of the appointment.

California State University, Bakersfield is committed to Equal Opportunity. Applicants will be considered without regard to gender, race, age, color, religion, national origin, genetic information, sexual orientation, marital status, disability or covered veterans’ status.
