Application Deadline Date: Review begins on September 14th, 2015 and continues until the position is filled.

Description: The Department of Accounting & Finance in the School of Business & Public Administration at California State University Bakersfield invites applications for a tenure-track position as an assistant or associate of accounting starting the fall semester of 2016.

Qualifications: Required: The candidate will be responsible for delivering (teaching, revising, developing) courses that provide business majors with fundamental accounting knowledge and accounting majors with the basic curricular needs to support careers as CPAs, management accountants, forensic accountants, etc. in our AACSB-accredited institution. Thus, candidates are required to have an earned doctorate in Accountancy (Ph.D. or DBA from an AACSB accredited institution; however, applicants nearing completion of the doctorate (ABD) may be considered. (For continued employment in the tenure track position, the doctorate must be completed by 8/01/2017.) Further, candidates must be committed to teaching excellence. Candidates must have an established scholarly record or the potential for a scholarly record consistent with AACSB standards. Candidates must have strong communication skills.

Preferred: (1) Training and/or teaching experience in one or more of the following areas: Auditing, Ethics, Tax, International Accounting, Financial Accounting, or Accounting Information Systems; (2) Earned a CPA or related professional credential; (3) Demonstrated work experience in an accounting-related position (e.g., experience in public accounting, private industry, or government position). Candidates with a well-established, prominent record of university-level teaching, research, and/or scholarly activities will be considered at the rank of Associate Professor.

Background Check: A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Mandated Reporter: The person holding this position is considered a “mandated reporter” under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

Compensation: Commensurate with experience and qualifications. CSUB offers a generous benefit package (e.g., excellent health, dental, vision, and retirement benefits.)

Application: To be considered, applicants must provide: 1) a personalized cover letter; 2) current vita; 3) example of teaching effectiveness (one page minimum), and 4) an example of scholarship. Before a campus visit, applicants must also provide: a) three (3) letters of reference and b) a copy of university transcripts verifying academic record and award of doctorate (or anticipated date of award). Additional references may be contacted by the Search Committee. Send the application packet to the following address (email submissions are preferred):
