Freedom Forum/NCAA Sports Journalism Scholarship Program - FAH (Vol. 7, No. 1)

Students are advised that through a $270,000 gift from The Freedom Forum, the NCAA is in its 14th year of offering a scholarship program for sports journalism students. This program is designed specifically to assist future sports journalists, while promoting quality sports journalism education at the collegiate level. Eight $3,000 scholarships will be awarded for the 2006--07 academic year to outstanding sports journalists. Candidates for these awards include only current full-time juniors. A selection committee determined by The Freedom Forum and the NCAA will choose the winners.

Applications for these awards, with an application deadline of December 9, 2005, may be obtained from the NCAA office or printed from the NCAA Web site at http://www.ncaa.org/leadership_advisory_board/programs.html .
