Quota International of Bakersfield 2005 Scholarship Application - FAH (Vol. 6, No. 36)

Students are advised that the Quota International of Bakersfield is a service organization that serves the needs of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing community in the local area. One of their most important projects is providing scholarships for individuals attending two or four year colleges who are Deaf, Hard of Hearing or hearing persons who are majoring in the field of Deaf studies. The organization is trying to reach as many individuals as possible who may qualify for their scholarships.

Quota will be giving at least one scholarship to a two-year college student, a four-year college student, and a graduating high school senior enrolled in college for fall 2005. The recipients will be notified in early May of their awards and the amount. The actual scholarship checks will be sent to the recipients in August.

Eligible applicants may obtain an application for this scholarship at CSUB's Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships located in the Student Affairs Building, phone (661) 664- 3016. The application deadline is Tuesday, April 15, 2005.

If you have any questions or wish further information, please contact Janet Skibinski at 661-664-6983.
