

CSUB FOUNDATION

Rules of Decorum

Adopted: March 30, 2022

CSUB FOUNDATION RULES OF DECORUM

All persons attending or participating in the CSUB Foundation's meetings are prohibited from disrupting or disturbing the orderly conduct of any such meeting. Disruptive behavior shall include but is not limited to any of the following:

1. Shouting, yelling, chanting or inciting others to shout, yell, or chant;
2. Banging, slamming or throwing objects;
3. Interrupting a speaker who has the floor, not including questions or warnings from a member of the Board;
4. Outbursts or interruptions from the audience, including by yelling, stomping, chanting, jeering, cheering, or using any amplified sound to speak or play music from the audience or otherwise disturbing the peace of the meeting;
5. Threatening, abusive, slanderous, profane or obscene remarks or conduct that disrupts the ability of the CSUB Foundation to conduct an orderly meeting;
6. Inciting disruption or provoking threatening, abusive, slanderous, profane or obscene remarks or conduct that disrupts the ability of the CSUB Foundation to conduct an orderly meeting;
7. Engaging in conduct which is designed to or is likely to provoke others to riotous, disruptive or violent behavior;
8. Continuing to speak after having been advised that the time allotted for such comments has expired;
9. Unduly repetitious comments;
10. Refusing to heed the presiding officer's warnings or call for order;
11. Comments which are outside the subject matter jurisdiction of the CSUB Foundation or which disrupt, disturb or impede the ability of the CSUB Foundation to reasonably carry on with the meeting; or
12. Blocking walkways, doorways, or seating areas in a manner that is disruptive, impedes accessibility of CSUB facilities, or any other conduct that prevents members of the public from viewing or hearing the public meeting, or that poses fire or life safety issues.
13. Any conduct that impedes the accessibility any member of the public to CSUB Foundation meetings via video teleconferencing technology, when participation via video teleconferencing is permitted, or that prevents such any member of the public from viewing or hearing the public meeting.

These Rules of Decorum shall be enforceable to the maximum extent allowed by law and shall apply to all open meetings of the CSUB Foundation Board or any of its committees.
