

Medical Insurance Requirements for IELC Students 2008-2009

Medical insurance is mandatory for all F-1 visa students enrolled in classes at the Intensive English Language Center (IELC). The IELC office offers a policy from Wells Fargo of California Insurance Services, Inc. that equals or exceeds the standards as set forth by the California State University Executive Order #622. This order requires that F-1 visa students obtain and maintain insurance coverage for health, medical evacuation, and repatriation during their period of enrollment at CSU, Bakersfield.

These standards are as follows:

- The policy is valid through the last day of each session;
- The medical benefit is at least $100,000 per condition;
- The co-payment does not exceed 25%;
- The repatriation benefit is at least $7,500;
- The medical evacuation benefit is at least $10,000;
- The deductible does not exceed $100 per illness or injury;
- The policy is funded in the United States;
- The policy provides benefits for conditions that have not been treated in the six months immediately preceding continuous coverage, and does not have greater than six months waiting period for conditions that have been treated within the six months immediately preceding continuous coverage.

The Wells Fargo Insurance policy is to be purchased during the first week of classes at IELC. The premium amounts for the 2008-2009 school year are listed below:
