We have a new girl in camp now, her name is Stella Dixon. She has big blue eyes. So watch out boys.

What is this we hear about Bob G. and Wanda D. getting acquainted so quick? (Nice going Bob).

By the way Wanda, does Bob know about you and I on the school bus? I bet he doesn't.

Yes, Roden has his up and downs with Jean too, don't you Roden?

Lois S. is heartbroken about a certain boy that use to live in camp.

Daisy T., we're ashamed of you. Don't you ever take "Headline News" anymore?

Say girls! Just a warning J. D. Holland doesn't care anything about girls. He shouldn't be like that.

Leslie S. still talks about a moo moonlight, walk he once took.

Boys, should we allow Doph J. in camp anymore? (Don't tell him, but we think he is getting all the girls at the dance. We soon find out).

We have an election for new committee and Officers. They will be elected by a simple majority of doors.

Jokes

Professor: "How would you like to be great enough to live your shoes on a ten dollar bill?"

Student: "I'd much rather have my hand on it.

Teacher: "Which is farther away, the moon or Africa?"

Pupil: "Africa.

Teacher: "Why?"

Pupil: "No can see the moon, can we see Africa?"

Judge: "Have you ever appeared as a witness before?"

Mr. Herk: "Yes, your honor.

Judge: "In what suit?"

Mr. Herk: "My blue sorge."

Loon P.: "If I had known that tunnel was so long I would have kissed you."

Wanda L. : "Gosh, wasn't that you?"

John S.: "Well, I answered a question in English today."

Levi G.: "What answer did you give?"

John: "Present."

Mrs. Bumpas: "Not a person in this library will be given any liberty today."

Voice in back of room: "Give no liberty or give no death."

Mrs. Bumpas: "Who said that?"

Voice: "Patrick Henry."

The Lonely American entered a tea-room in London.

Waitress: "May I take your order?"

American: "Two eggs and a kind word."

The Waitress brought the eggs and was moving away when the American stopped her.

American: "And what about the kind word?"

The Waitress leaned over and whispered: "Don't eat the eggs."

Dinner Guest: "Will you pass the nuts, Professor?"

About minded Professor: "Yes, I suppose so, but I really should flunk most of them."
DANCE

Last Wednesday's Dance was a big success with the large crowd and more music than ever before.

The main attraction, from Arvin, featured several numbers, and will furnish more music every Thursday from now on.

May 2, violin, viola, cello, and two violins, five voices, with two violins, violinists, singing in addition. Music in the best because, under the direction of the conductor, the music was played with much enthusiasm. They are the winners, and deserve it. If you want to hear good music, come to the Arvin School on Thursday nights.

Mrs. Chester Smith made lemonade, which was well received by the girls. They are hard-working and can serve the best panic on and make it very good.

Yes, I like there is a question out there about the girls, but they are wonderful.

VANDERBILT

Uncle Harry's Gang

All the kids in town are busy learning new songs for Thursday night.

So have a new "Inspector" in town, Mr. Chester Smith is the new one. He first gets a good job in another company, but he is very strict. He looks over the whole town and has a new car. He walks the streets with his "Inspector" in the front seat, in a, and then he drives while he inspects the first.

I have a pretty girl who is about fifteen this year. She is very pretty and gets all the "passes" she wants.

We girls who choose to be inspected just pay to Chester. He knows his job and likes it.

Uncle Harry says: "Let's have all the girls be 'nice' tonight at Friday night. We have a lot better entertainment than boys because, they never quit.

VANDERBILT

Last Thursday's VANDERBILT is fantastic when the other clubs are compared to it. The very best of all boys and girls attend.

And it won't be any different tonight, as you can see. We will have more music, more entertainment, and a lot of girls. We will have a lot of entertainment tonight in the program.

The material, as always, is the best, and we will have better songs and a lot of girls. The girls
