To: Fall 2023 Traditional BSN Program Entry

Subject: RSVP (required)

You have been extended an invitation to join the Fall 2023 incoming cohort for the Traditional BSN program at CSU, Bakersfield.

Prior to returning this form, please consider your personal situation and how entering the nursing program will change your life. Because space in the program is very limited and there are many students waiting to be accepted, it is important that you realistically evaluate your ability to complete the 3-year nursing program at CSUB. If you accept this offer and do not plan to attend, you are costing another student an opportunity.

There are two mandatory Nursing Student Orientations you will be expected to attend, July 18th and August 21st. Plan accordingly and expect to stay for the full duration of both orientation schedules. Failure to attend both orientations will result in being administratively dropped from the nursing program. The July 18th orientation will be virtually via Zoom, and August 21st will be held in person on the CSUB campus. More information with details and instructions will be forthcoming as the dates draw closer.

Please complete the following RSVP and return to the Department of Nursing no later than the deadline indicated on your conditional acceptance notice. This will hold your seat in the program. If we do not receive confirmation back from you by the deadline, we presume your plans to attend CSUB have changed and your seat will be offered to another eligible candidate.
