

Emergency Medicine Nurse Practitioner or Physician Assistant Opportunities in the Central Valley Region

CEP America, formerly known as California Emergency Physicians, is seeking PA/NPs to join some of our Central Valley locations. Within CEP America our PAs and NPs enjoy the networking advantages and resources of a large, nationwide group while practicing at local sites that largely function autonomously. CEP America providers interact and share proven solutions with colleagues from similar practice situations and, at the same time, are integral members of the local community and hospital team.
