

Liberal Studies

ENGL/LING 420 Sociolinguistics: Language, Society, and Education (5)

Class Nbr: 11281

Cost: $750

Location: UC 211

Examination of the relationship between language and such social variables as sex, economic class, race, and ethnicity. Topics include social dialects, linguistic stereotypes, code-switching, and the educational problems of language minorities. A thorough linguistic comparison between one non-standard dialect and Standard American English will be included. Prerequisite: ENGL/ LING 319 or 414 or 415 or permission of instructor.

Dates & Times: Tues 5p – 9p: 1/12, 2/2, 2/23, and online

Instructor: R. Carlisle Email: rcarlisle@csub.edu

LBST 385 Environmental Economics (5)

Class Nbr: 11282

Cost: $750

Location: Online

Topics to include: static and dynamic efficiency and market failure; economic analysis of air, water, solid waste, and toxic policies; energy and the environment; benefit-cost policy analysis and case studies; tort and insurance issues; incentive-based regulation; monitoring and enforcement issues; risk assessment, management, and communication; global issues and agreements. Prerequisite: one economics course or permission of instructor.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: A. Hegde Email: shegde@csub.edu

ENGL 471 Studies in Twentieth-Century Children's Literature (5)

Class Nbr: 11283

Cost: $750

Location: Online.

This course focuses on twentieth-century classics of children's literature. Works covered include texts by L. Frank Baum, A. A. Milne, C. S. Lewis, and J. R. R. Tolkien and texts within and outside the main Western tradition. The course will use principles of literary criticism and analysis to explore realism and fantasy, social allegory, and the motif of the quest or journey. Prerequisite: ENGL 101 or the equivalent or one course from ENGL 205, 207, 208, 272, 290, 294, or 295.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: G. Hudson Email: ghudson@csub.edu

ENGL 311 Writing Literary Analysis (5) (Fulfills GWAR requirement)

Class Nbr: 11287

Cost: $750

Location: Online

Intensive development of writing skills in English as a discipline, specifically literary analysis and criticism. Students practice writing about literature, nonfiction, and film using basic principles of close reading, formalist attention to literary techniques and structure, and appropriate critical approaches. Prerequisite: ENGL 101 or the equivalent or one course from ENGL 205, 207, 208, 235, 272, 290, 294, or 295, and upper division standing. Fulfills the GWAR.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: S. Frye Email: sfrye@csub.edu

SCI 325A Integrated Life Science (4)

Class Nbr: 11284

Cost: $640

Location: Boykin Hall 205 (not in the University Center)

Fundamental principles of science (e.g. mechanics, thermodynamics) applied to biological systems, including ecology, evolution, and the human body. Laboratories focus on developing skills in the experimental method and processes of science with an integrated focus on biological topics. Two hours lecture and six hours laboratory. Prerequisites: SCI 213 or BIOL 100, and SCI 214. Note: this is neither a methods of teaching nor curriculum development course; the focus is on science content and process for science literacy. Open only to majors in Liberal Studies or Child, Adolescent and Family Studies.

Dates & Times: Sat 830a – 11a & 1p – 5p Jan 9 – Mar 13

Instructor: R. Stark Email: rstark2@csub.edu

EDEL 240 Introductory Fieldwork (2)

Class Nbr: 11288 Cost: $300 Location: UC 305

This course is observation and participation in an elementary school classroom designed to provide the prospective elementary teacher with a frame of reference for further work and study in the profession. The course is two credit units and will be a graded class. It is a prerequisite to the Multiple Subject Program. (45 hours of field based components required)

Dates & Times: Thu 5pm – 7pm: 1/7; 1/21; 2/4; 2/18; 3/4

Instructor: D. Fuller Email: dfuller@csub.edu

EDSE 477 Teaching English Learners (3)

Class Nbr: 11291 Cost: $450 Location: UC 307

This course examines the cultural and linguistic experiences of ethnic, racial, gender, exceptional and socioeconomic groups in the United States and analyses methods of instruction designed to create successful, personal, and academic behavior in multicultural classroom settings. It further explores the structure of language and language acquisition, including English and other languages. Theories and models for developing second language content in the schools, including psychological, sociocultural, political and pedagogical factors are presented and discussed.

Dates & Times: Fri 5p – 9p, Sat 9a – 3p: 1/8-9; 1/22-23; 2/5-6

Instructor: O. Patino Email: opatino2@csub.edu

LBST 390 CTAP Level I Portfolio and Information Competencies (2)

Class Nbr: 11289 Cost: $300 Location: UC 213

Exposure to information competencies required of Liberal Studies majors, and the assemblage of a portfolio documenting computer skills (CTAP Level I Competency). Prerequisites: satisfactory completion of the CSUB Technology requirement by course (CMPS 120) or test.

Dates & Times: Wed 5p – 9p: 1/13, 1/20, 1/27, 2/10, 2/17

Instructor: J. Meadows Email: jmeadows2@csub.edu

English Major with Credential Emphasis

ENGL 414 History of the English Language (5)

Class Nbr: 11286 Cost: $750 Location: Online.

The development of English phonology, morphology, syntax, spelling, and vocabulary from the Old English period to the present. Prerequisite: ENGL 110 or the equivalent.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: S. Adjaye Email: sadjaye@csub.edu

ENGL 311 Writing Literary Analysis (5)

Class Nbr: 11287 Cost: $750 Location: Online

Intensive development of writing skills in English as a discipline, specifically literary analysis and criticism. Students practice writing about literature, nonfiction, and film using basic principles of close reading, formalist attention to literary techniques and structure, and appropriate critical approaches. Prerequisite: ENGL 101 or the equivalent or one course from ENGL 205, 207, 208, 235, 272, 290, 294, or 295, and upper division standing. Fulfills the GWAR.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: S. Frye Email: sfrye@csub.edu

Communications

COMM 206 Issues and Practices in Journalism (5)

Class Nbr: 11356 Cost: $750 Location: Online

Study of the problems and techniques of journalism, including audiences and resources. Overview of history and development of print media. Examination of news sources, interviewing, reporting, writing, and ethics. Frequent exercises in news gathering and writing and preparing copy for publication.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: J. Pratt Email: jpratt@csub.edu

COMM 304 Technical and Report Writing (5)

Class Nbr: 11300 Cost: $750 Location: Online

Extensive practice in writing clearly and persuasively in technical and specialized forms such as reports of experiments, abstracts, business reports and proposals, letters, memoranda. Prerequisite: ENGL 110 or the equivalent with a grade of "C-" or better, and upper division standing. Fulfills the GWAR.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: M. Slaughter Email: mslaught@csub.edu

COMM 305 Public Relations (5)

Class Nbr: 11301 Cost: $750 Location:

A study of the theory and practice of public relations with an emphasis on two-way communication, the four step process of public relations, publics in public relations, and settings for public relations including business, education, labor, government, and other organizations. Explores the roles of public relations professionals in their organizations and the importance of public relations in contemporary organizations. Introduction to the basic tools of the public relations professional including the news release and other forms of public relations communications. Prerequisite: COMM 206 for majors.

Dates & Times: Tues 5p – 9p 1/12, 26; 2/9, 23; 3/9 and online

Instructor: J. Pratt Email: jpratt@csub.edu

COMM 309 Theories of Communication (5)

Class Nbr: 11302 Cost: $750 Location: UC 210

How theories are constructed. Survey of theoretical approaches to communication drawing on the social sciences and humanities. Prerequisite: COMM 274 or the equivalent for majors.

Dates & Times: Thur 5p – 9p 1/7 – 3/11

Instructor: D. Simmons Email: dsimmons2@csub.edu

ENGL 471 Studies in Twentieth-Century Children's Literature (5)

Class Nbr: 11283 Cost: $750 Location: Online.

This course focuses on twentieth-century classics of children's literature. Works covered include texts by L. Frank Baum, A. A. Milne, C. S. Lewis, and J. R. R. Tolkien and texts within and outside the main Western tradition. The course will use principles of literary criticism and analysis to explore realism and fantasy, social allegory, and the motif of the quest or journey. Prerequisite: ENGL 101 or the equivalent or one course from ENGL 205, 207, 208, 272, 290, 294, or 295.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: G. Hudson Email: ghudson@csub.edu

PPA 340 Policy Networks (5)

Class Nbr: 11280 Cost: $750 Location: Online

This course offers an overview of the policy-making process and policy networks at the national, state, and local levels. This process can be divided (somewhat arbitrarily) into several stages: agenda setting, policy formulations, policy adoption, budgeting, policy implementation, and policy evaluation. The course covers the relevant literature on each stage of the process. The course will also examine several important policy areas including economic policy, energy and environmental policy, crime and criminal justice, welfare policy, health policy, education policy, legal and social equality, immigration policy, and life-style policy. Satisfies Theme III (Social Science Requirement) in the General Education Program.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: C. Commuri Email: ccommuri@csub.edu

Multiple Subject Credential

Prerequisite Stage:

EDEL 240 Introductory Fieldwork (2)

Class Nbr: 11288 Cost: $300 Location: UC 305

This course is observation and participation in an elementary school classroom designed to provide the prospective elementary teacher with a frame of reference for further work and study in the profession. The course is two credit units and will be a graded class. It is a prerequisite to the Multiple Subject Program. (45 hours of field based components required)

Dates & Times: Thu 5pm – 7pm: 1/7; 1/21; 2/4; 2/18; 3/4

Instructor: D. Fuller Email: dfuller@csub.edu

EDSE 477 Teaching English Learners (3)

Class Nbr: 11291 Cost: $450 Location: UC 307

This course examines the cultural and linguistic experiences of ethnic, racial, gender, exceptional and socioeconomic groups in the United States and analyses methods of instruction designed to create successful, personal, and academic behavior in multicultural classroom settings. It further explores the structure of language and language acquisition, including English and other languages. Theories and models for developing second language content in the schools, including psychological, sociocultural, political and pedagogical factors are presented and discussed.

Dates & Times: Fri 5p – 9p, Sat 9a – 3p: 1/8-9; 1/22-23; 2/5-6

Instructor: O. Patino Email: opatino2@csub.edu

LBST 390 CTAP Level I Portfolio and Information Competencies (2)

Class Nbr: 11289 Cost: $300 Location: UC 213

This course examines the cultural and linguistic experiences of ethnic, racial, gender, exceptional and socioeconomic groups in the United States and analyses methods of instruction designed to create successful, personal, and academic behavior in multicultural classroom settings. It further explores the structure of language and language acquisition, including English and other languages. Theories and models for developing second language content in the schools, including psychological, sociocultural, political and pedagogical factors are presented and discussed.

Dates & Times: Wed 5p – 9p: 1/13, 1/20, 1/27, 2/10, 2/17

Instructor: J. Meadows Email: jmeadows2@csub.edu

Stage II:

EDEL 430 Literacy Acquisition - B (4)

Class Nbr: 11292

Cost: $560

Location: UC 315

This course focuses on teaching literacy skills to students in third through sixth grades. Theory, research, and practice related to student's successfully acquiring literacy or functioning at an at-risk level will be emphasized. The course includes instruction in content area reading; knowledge of literacy skills, methods, and materials for the intermediate grades; assessment procedures and materials for grade level students, at risk students, and students with culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds; and instructional strategies and materials for use in a culturally and linguistically diverse. Prerequisites: EDEL 420 and Prerequisites: Admission to the Multiple Subject Credential Program. Note: course includes 20 hours of field based components.

Dates & Times: Fri 5pm – 9pm, Sat 9am – 3pm: 1/8-9; 1/15-16; 1/22-23; 1/29-30

Instructor: K. Wallace Email: kwallace@csub.edu

EDEL 436 Curriculum and Instruction of Elementary Social Studies (3)

Class Nbr: 11293

Cost: $420

Location: UC 305

This course is designed to familiarize students with the instructional strategies, skills, and materials for teaching social studies to diverse student populations at the elementary level. Demonstration, discussion, reading, and practical experiences will provide students with the basis of an effective social studies program that includes: the use of goals and objectives, approaches to curriculum development, basic content, and techniques for authentic assessment. Prerequisites: Admission to the Multiple Subject Credential Program. Note: course includes 10 hours of field based components.

Dates & Times: : Fri 5pm – 9pm, Sat 9am – 3pm: 2/19-20; 2/26-27; 3/12-13

Instructor: N. Copley Email: ncopley@csub.edu

EDBI 478 Introduction to Teaching English as a Second Language (ESL/ELD) (3)

Class Nbr: 11294

Cost: $420

Location: UC 210

This course reviews and applies theories of second language acquisition and development. It focuses on the practice of ESL methods and materials for the classroom. The course provides teacher candidates with the methodology elements to meet CCTC Domain II-ESL methodology. This course builds on EDBI 475 (Introduction to Cross-cultural Education) which meets CCTC Domain III-Cultural Diversity and EDBI 476 (Introduction to Language Acquisition and Development) which meets CCTC Domain I-Language Acquisition). EDBI 477 moves from a review of the pedagogy for second language acquisition to an analysis of California State EL demographics, to investigating and comprehending the ELD and ELA State Standards, to exposure of various ESL strategies (including ELD and SDAIE), to observing ESL lessons which address the State Standards, and finally to designing their own ESL lessons, appropriate for the grade level and content area candidates expect to teach in. Critiques and self-reflection will be critical components throughout this course.

Dates & Times: Wednesdays 5p – 915p: 1/6; 1/13; 1/20; 1/27; 2/3; 2/10; 2/17

Instructor: O. Patino Email: opatino@csub.edu

EDEL 439 Preparation for Advanced Fieldwork (6)

Class Nbr: 11295

Cost: $840

Location: UC 209

This course focuses on providing opportunities for candidates to demonstrate their competency on the Teaching performance Expectations through the completion of two benchmark assessments. The fieldwork component of the courses allows the candidates to teach a series of twelve whole class and/or small group lessons in four areas of instruction (science, social studies, math, and language arts) under the guidance of a master teacher. This field experience involves full day student teaching scheduled during the normal public school session. It also involves a seminar that meets at least five times during the quarter. Prerequisites: EDEL 420, 421, 429, 437, EDBI 476.

Note: Students are not allowed to make their own placement. Please consult with Debbie Meadows, Coordinator for the COC ELED program, regarding student teaching placements.

Dates & Times: Thurs 8am – 1030am 1/7; 1/14; 1/21; 1/28; 2/11; 2/25

Instructor: D. Meadows Email: dmeadows@csub.edu

Single Subject Credential

Prerequisite Stage:

EDSE 477 Teaching English Learners (3)

Class Nbr: 11291

Cost: $450

Location: UC 307

This course examines the cultural and linguistic experiences of ethnic, racial, gender, exceptional and socioeconomic groups in the United States and analyses methods of instruction designed to create successful, personal, and academic behavior in multicultural classroom settings. It further explores the structure of language and language acquisition, including English and other languages. Theories and models for developing second language content in the schools, including psychological, sociocultural, political and pedagogical factors are presented and discussed.

Dates & Times: Fri 5p – 9p, Sat 9a – 3p: 1/8-9; 1/22-23; 2/5-6

Instructor: O. Patino Email: opatino2@csub.edu

Stage II:

EDSE 505 Special Methods/Content Area (5)

Class Nbr: 11296

Cost: $700

Location: UC 305

A special methods course may not be offered at CSUB in some of the major subject areas. In such cases an appropriate related subject may be substituted (with prior approval) or a special methods course may be used/ completed from another institution. Ten hours of observation in a junior or senior high school classroom is required. Prerequisites: EDSE 501, 503, & 504.

Dates & Times: Tues 5p – 9p: 1/12 – 3/16

Instructor: K. Harvey Email: TBA

EDSE 505b TPA: Designing Instruction (1)

Class Nbr: 11297

Cost: $140

Location: UC 209

Dates & Times: Course offered concurrently with EDSE 507

Instructor: S. Schmidt Email: sschmidt3@csub.edu

EDSE 507 Classroom Management (5)

Class Nbr: 11299

Cost: $700

Location: UC 209

This course relates directly to the student's beginning teaching experience and addresses the psychological foundations in the teaching-learning process. Major topics include: adolescent development and psychology, classroom management, motivation, learning theory, assessment and evaluation. This course is taken in Phase II concurrently with EDSE 445. This course is a requirement for a Single Subject Credential. The course is designed to make candidates conversant with current pedagogical theory and best practices employed by secondary teachers to promote an optimal learning environment for all students. The course topics include principles of classroom management, understanding students' motivation and behavior, structuring the learning environment, class planning as a prevention measure for obstructive behavior, procedures for handling various types of classroom behavioral crisis, and steps to take in modifying disruptive student behavior. Prerequisites include: EDSE 501, 503, & 504.

Note: Ten hours of observation in a junior or senior high school classroom is required when enrolled in these courses: EDSE 503, 505, 506, and 507.

Dates & Times: Wed 5p – 9p: 1/6 – 3/10

Instructor: S. Schmidt Email: sschmidt3@csub.edu

EDSE 506 Reading Across the Curriculum (5)

Class Nbr: 11298

Cost: $700

Location: UC 307

This course is required of all candidates in the Single Subject Secondary Teaching Credential. The content is designed to acquaint prospective teachers with research-based information on adolescent literacy across content areas. Candidates will study an array of strategies and methods for guiding and developing content-based reading and writing abilities of all students, including students of varied reading levels and language backgrounds. Ten hours of observation in a junior or senior high school classroom is required.

Dates & Times: Fri 5p – 9p, Sat 9a – 3p: 2/12-13; 2/26-27, 3/12-13, 3/19-20 and online

Instructor: K. LaGue Email: klague@csub.edu

Curriculum & Instruction

EDCI 530 Curriculum Theory and Development (3)

Class Nbr: 11268 Cost: $555 Location: Online

The focus is on current curriculum issues facing educators, methods of effective curriculum change and development, and the larger context for curriculum in today's schools. Prerequisite: teaching credential or permission of the instructor.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: R. Schultz Email: rschultz@csub.edu

EDCI 520 Instructional Strategies (3)

Class Nbr: 11269 Cost: $555 Location: Online

An advanced, intensive study and analysis of the interrelated cultural, philosophical, historical and social factors which bear upon the continuing and contemporary issues in American education. The course focuses on an integration of foundational themes and concerns that relate directly to contemporary educational problems. Prerequisite: teaching credential or permission of the instructor.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: A. Summers Email: asummers2@csub.edu

EDRS 681 Research Design and Analysis in Education (3)

Class Nbr: 11274 Cost: $555 Location: Online

This course focuses on various qualitative approaches, including historical inquiry, descriptive research, quasiexperimental design, single-subject investigation, document analysis, interview planning, observation inventory and ethnographic studies. These research tools are incorporated with statistical methods from EDRS 680 to facilitate development of student research proposals. Topics of the proposal often reflect characteristics of action research that are relevant to classroom teacher, educational administrators, school counselors and special educators. Prerequisite: EDRS 680.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: J. Wang Email: jwang@csub.edu

EDCI 572 Teaching to Standards (5)

Class Nbr: 11270 Cost: $925 Location: Online

This course is for teachers who are ready to integrate educational technologies into their instructional units. Using California Content Standards and a new set of technology standards, teachers explore how to create and modify lessons that use technology to help students meet learning standards.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: L. Curtis Email: lcurtis@csub.edu

EDCI 548 Instructional Leadership in Education as a Profession (3)

Class Nbr: 11271 Cost: $555 Location: Online

This course focuses on the educational leadership paradigms to define teacher roles as professionals and leaders in schools. It also helps participants develop knowledge and skills in education leadership as they supervise, coach, mentor, network and collaborate with other participants in the school community. Prerequisite: teaching credential or permission of the instructor.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: P. Swenson Email: pswenson@csub.edu

EDCI 604 Special Topics (3)

Class Nbr: 11340 Cost: $555 Location: Online

WebQuests

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: S. Stansberry Email:

Educational Administration

EDAD 674 Supervision of Instruction (3)

Class Nbr: 11303 Cost: $555 Location: UC 311

Historical development and trends of supervision in an educational setting are addressed in addition to current practices and leadership behaviors necessary for the improvement of instruction, staff development and the evaluation of teaching-learning effectiveness.

Dates & Times: Fri 5pm – 9pm, Sat 9am – 2pm: 1/8-9; 1/15-16; 1/22-23

Instructor: P. Swenson Email: pswenson@csub.edu

EDAD 572 Legal Aspects of Education (3)

Class Nbr: 11304 Cost: $555 Location: UC 311

This course focuses on the laws of public education, examined from the point of view of implications for the profession and considers legal responsibilities and duties, powers and liabilities of teachers and administrators.

Dates & Times: Fri 5pm – 9pm, Sat 9am – 2pm: 2/19-20; 2/26-27; 3/5-6

Instructor: B. Burrow Email: cburrow@csub.edu

EDCI 530 Curriculum Theory and Development (3)

Class Nbr: 11268 Cost: $555 Location: Online

The focus is on current curriculum issues facing educators, methods of effective curriculum change and development, and the larger context for curriculum in today's schools. Prerequisite: teaching credential or permission of the instructor.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: R. Schultz Email: rschultz@csub.edu

EDCI 520 Instructional Strategies (3)

Class Nbr: 11269 Cost: $555 Location: Online

An advanced, intensive study and analysis of the interrelated cultural, philosophical, historical and social factors which bear upon the continuing and contemporary issues in American education. The course focuses on an integration of foundational themes and concerns that relate directly to contemporary educational problems. Prerequisite: teaching credential or permission of the instructor.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: A. Summers Email: asummers2@csub.edu

EDRS 681 Research Design and Analysis in Education (3)

Class Nbr: 11274 Cost: $555 Location: Online

This course focuses on various qualitative approaches, including historical inquiry, descriptive research, quasiexperimental design, single-subject investigation, document analysis, interview planning, observation inventory and ethnographic studies. These research tools are incorporated with statistical methods from EDRS 680 to facilitate development of student research proposals. Topics of the proposal often reflect characteristics of action research that are relevant to classroom teacher, educational administrators, school counselors and special educators. Prerequisite: EDRS 680.

Dates & Times: 1/6 – 3/16. Login to Blackboard the first week of the quarter

Instructor: J. Wang Email: jwang@csub.edu

EDAD 693 Field Work in Educational Administration I (3)

Class Nbr: 11305 Cost: $555 Location: UC 208

This experience involves directed fieldwork in administration of schools and includes supervised project, assigned readings and written reports. Prerequisite: permission of instructor.

Dates & Times: 330pm – 430pm: 1/9

Instructor: B. Burrow Email: cburrow@csub.edu

EDAD 694 Field Work in Educational Administration II (3)

Class Nbr: 11306 Cost: $555 Location: UC 208

Dates & Times: 330pm – 430pm: 1/9

Instructor: B. Burrow Email: cburrow@csub.edu

EDAD 698 Culminating Examination in Educational Administration (3)

Class Nbr: 11307 Cost: $555 Location: UC 208

This examination involves an in-depth study of educational administration. Prerequisites: successful completion of 39 quarter units in the concentration and core requirements, EDCA 693, approved petition for advancement to candidacy and appointment of a three-member Culminating Activity Committee (CAC).

Dates & Times: 430pm – 530pm: 1/9

Instructor: L. Wildman Email: lwildman@csub.edu