Course Objectives: This is a course designed as a transition from elementary mathematics to higher mathematics. You will be introduced to formal language in mathematics, and the ways of expressing mathematical ideas rigorously. Contents include:

- (a) Introduction to logic
- (b) Introduction to set theory
- (c) Introduction to proofs
- (d) Mathematical Induction
- (e) Relations
- (f) Functions
- (g) Real number system

Web page: The web page for the course is at <http://www.csub.edu/~clam/math300s09.html>

Homework: Every week, homework problems will be assigned and is due the week after. In each homework, 10% of the total grade will be allocated to the presentation of your work.

Labs: Labs are conducted every Monday. Attendance is required. Students are required to work in groups to solve problems. Each group will be responsible to present clearly written solutions, and each student in the group will be given the same grade on each submitted lab.

Grading: In addition to homework, labs, there will be two tests, and a final exam (cumulative). A pass (50%) in the final exam is required to obtain a final grade of D- or better. A 60% in the final exam is required to obtain a final grade of C- or better.

Homework .....	20%
Lab .....	10%
Test 1 .....	20%
Test 2 .....	20%
Final Exam .....	30%

Test Dates:

- First Test: April 30, Thursday (tentative)
- Second Test: May 21, Thursday (tentative)
- Final Exam: June 11, Thursday, 5-7:30pm

Remarks:

- There will be no make-up exams or tests. If you know in advance that you are going to miss an exam, please make your arrangements with me at least one week ahead.
- Please hand in homework on time. Late homework will be accepted up to the beginning of next class for 50% of credit.

Academic Dishonesty:

You are encouraged to work with your classmates in labs and homework. However, YOU ARE REQUIRED TO HAND IN WORK WRITTEN BY YOURSELF. A rule of thumb is to destroy any evidence of discussion before writing up the solutions yourself.

If you collaborated with anyone, ACKNOWLEDGE COLLABORATORS. Please also note that, ACKNOWLEDGING YOUR FRIENDS ON THE CONTRIBUTION DOES NOT MEAN YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO COPY OTHERS' WORK. YOU MUST WRITE THE SOLUTIONS IN YOUR OWN WORDS.

If you are caught cheating, the policy for this class is -10% to the final grade on the first offense, -20% for the second, and -50% thereafter.
