Study Guide Questions One/I~II of 1984. Please print these questions, punch the hard copy, place in “Lecture/HW” binder tab, and answer items in complete sentences. Thanks, comrades!

1. List the three slogans of the Party that are emblazoned on the Ministry of Truth.

2. What is the name of the omniscient government? How would this make you feel if you saw and heard this slogan day in and day out?

3. Who is the character that seems to be able to connect to the protagonist?

4. How does the protagonist make this connection? What is the “essential crime that contained all others in itself”? What is the punishment for this “essential crime”?

5. What is the title all Party members are to use when addressing another Party member?

6. Why do you think they are supposed to use this title/term?

7. What is so ironic about the residential title “Victory Mansions”?

8. Why are the Parson children disappointed? What is macabre about their disappointment?

9. List four methods the government uses to disseminate the information/propaganda.

10. List the three “sacred principles of INGSOC.”