Drama: The Abbey Theatre

Required Texts:

Course Packet from Copy House (2749 W. Ave L, Lancaster, CA 93551. 722-3916).

In this course we will focus on the drama written for the National Theatre of Ireland from the final years of the 19th century through about the first half of the twentieth century. We will especially focus on the early material written by authors such as W.B. Yeats, Lady Gregory, John Millington Synge, and Sean O’Casey; we will seek to contextualize the drama within its historical and political setting, and we will explore how the drama of this time and place reflected and sometimes helped to shape cultural and social changes that were occurring in Ireland.

I will lecture very rarely; the course will be centered on class discussion, group work, and readings from the plays. You will be graded in this class, in part, for your participation in the discussions and “performances” we will be having. You will also have to do quite a bit of writing; in fact, you will be required to turn in some sort of paper every week. You will write short papers on a regular basis and you will write one longer paper (7-10 pages which will be an elaboration upon one or more of your shorter papers) as well as an annotated bibliography on one of the dramatists.

I will be giving pop-quizzes every now and again. The quizzes are to make sure that you have kept up with the reading and the one page papers are to make sure that you’ve taken the time to think about what you’ve read and are willing and able to organize your thoughts on paper. I’ll also give you a midterm and a final. Near the end of term, you will collect all your assignments together in a portfolio, as I will outline below.

For every reading that we do in this class be sure to choose lines or sentences that you find to be especially striking. Be prepared to read these lines in class and to explain what it is about the lines that you find significant. (For next class you should choose lines from The Countess Cathleen by W.B. Yeats or The Heather Field by Edward Martyn). You will also be required to memorize and perform as a member of a group a part in one scene of one. Finally, you will be required to present a short oral presentation on your research topic to the class during the term.
Goals and Objectives: by the end of this course you will be able to:
1. Identify major writers of and plays of the Abbey Theatre
2. Explain some of the most important historical and cultural contexts to be associated with those writers and/or plays.
3. In oral and written argument, analyze, interpret, and compare the stylistic and thematic characteristics of two or more playwrights and/or plays.
4. Identify along reasonably broad lines the relationship of the drama with social conditions in Ireland.
5. Demonstrate an understanding in your writing of the importance of revision, an ability to use various rhetorical forms, and a mastery of American English.
6. Define and apply dramatic terminology

Portfolios:
Your class portfolio will be due on the first day of finals week. It must include:
1. Table of contents providing page numbers and headings.
2. All of the written assignments IN ORDER. You must turn in the copy of your writing that has my comments, grade, or check on it. This includes in-class writing, take-home papers, midterm, the annotated bibliography, and your final paper. I am interested in your writing as it was the week it was assigned, so only turn in that copy. The longer essay should be revised.
3. A discussion of the part you memorized for the class.

Attendance in this course is more than required; it is vital. You are responsible for arranging a drop from the registration office. If you do not drop the class through the registration office and your name appears on the final grade sheet, I will give you an F.

Course Requirements:
- Midterm exam 20%
- Final exam 20%
- Portfolio 20%
- Response papers, quizzes, and participation 20%
- Annotated Bibliography and presentation 20%

Tentative Reading Schedule:
1/6 Read over syllabus. Introductory lecture and discussion on Abbey Theatre. Class reading of The Countess Cathleen.
1/13 The Countess Cathleen by W.B. Yeats, and The Heather Field by Edward Martyn. (In course packet)
1/20 Martin Luther King Jr. Day. Classes not in session
1/27 The Twisting of the Rope by Douglas Hyde (in packet) and all the W.B Yeats plays in the textbook Modern Irish Drama (MID).
2/3 All plays and criticism in MID by Lady Gregory
2/10 All plays and criticism in MID by J.M. Synge
2/17 Midterm. All plays and criticism in MID by Bernard Shaw
2/24 All plays and criticism in MID by Sean O’Casey
3/3 All plays and criticism in MID by Brendan Behan
3/10 All plays and criticism in MID by Samuel Beckett and Brian Friel
3/17 Final Exam and all portfolios due

Be sure to read the Backgrounds and Criticism section of Modern Irish Drama for the relevant plays and writers each week.
For the annotated bibliography and presentation, each student will do research on one of the playwrights of the Abbey Theatre (not necessarily one on the reading list or in the textbook). During the week that we read a play by the author you have chosen, you will give a short presentation on your work in progress, and help to lead the class discussion. I will distribute further information about the annotated bibliographies and portfolios next week.
