

Proclamation

Office of the Mayor

*The Mayor
of the City of Bakersfield, California
has officially proclaimed*

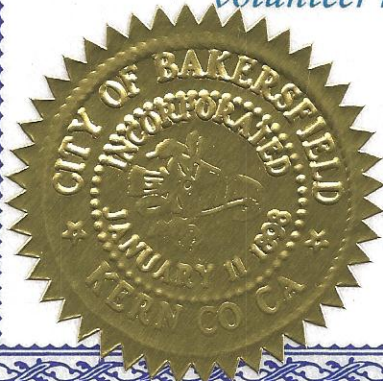

April 7, 2011

as

The 60+ Club Day

in our city

in recognition of the 25th Anniversary Celebration of this member-driven and member-governed organization consisting of retirees from all walks of life with a desire and passion to pursue life-long learning; in recognition of the organization's partnership with the California State University, Bakersfield, Alumni Association; in recognition of a commitment to providing personal enrichment, educational and volunteer opportunities, as well as social activities facilitated by the University and enriched by the campus environment and resources of the scholastic setting; in recognition of the rich experience of its members, and in recognition of the nearly 60,000 volunteer hours of service the members have provided the University since 1986.
