MEMORANDUM

DATE: August 14, 2017

TO: MPPs

FROM: Kellie Garcia, Associate Vice President
       Human Resources & Administrative Services

SUBJECT: Updated Moving and Relocation Policy and Updated Internal Procedures Governing Moving and Relocation Expenses

The purpose of this memorandum is to implement updated systemwide policy guidelines for moving and relocation of individuals who change their place of residence due to the acceptance of a position with the California State University (CSU) under specified circumstances.

In addition, the Internal Procedures Governing Reimbursement for Moving and Relocation Expenses (Attachment A) is attached. These procedures are to be used to reimburse new and current employees required to relocate in the best interests of the CSU.

The CSU Internal Procedures Governing Reimbursement for Moving and Relocation Expenses provide for the reimbursement of actual, necessary and reasonable moving and relocation expenses under the following circumstances:

- Current employees – when required by the current appointing authority to change his/her place of residence because of a change in assignment, promotion or other reason related to the employee’s duties deemed to be in the best interests of the CSU. The new primary job location must be at least 50 miles farther from the employee’s former home than the old primary job location.

- Initial appointments – when an individual who has been offered a position within the CSU by an appointing authority and has accepted such appointment. This includes an employee of a CSU campus who accepts an ongoing assignment at another CSU campus. Moving and relocation expense reimbursements, including monetary thresholds, are authorized by the appointing authority at each campus for new appointees.
- Temporary appointments – when a current CSU employee accepts a long-term temporary assignment offered by a CSU appointing authority other than his/her current appointing authority, he/she may receive a temporary relocation allowance. The employee’s temporary job location must be at least 50 miles farther from the employee’s permanent residence than the former job location. The employee serving in a temporary appointment must also maintain a permanent residence in the vicinity of the former job location for the duration of the temporary appointment.

Temporary relocation allowances are at the discretion of the temporary appointing authority and may be subject to taxation.

Not all new appointees or current CSU employees will be eligible for reimbursement of moving and relocation expenses. The decision by an appointing authority to offer moving and relocation expenses is discretionary and contingent upon the availability of funds. Please refer to the CSU Internal Procedures Governing Reimbursement for Moving and Relocation Expenses for additional information.

CSUB Policy Guidelines

CSUB may authorize reimbursement of moving and relocation expenses based on the following criteria:

- Employee possesses specialized skills needed by the campus
- The individual is currently located in a geographic location that makes commuting prohibitive
- Provides incentive for individual to accept the offered position
- Other acceptable reason, authorized by the President

All offers of moving and relocation expense reimbursements must be in writing and approved by the applicable approver prior to the individual’s move.

The appropriate dean/director may approve, in writing, an offer of reimbursement less than $5,000. This may also require discussion with the appropriate Vice President/Provost, as determined by each Vice President/Provost.

The appropriate Vice President/Provost may approve, in writing, an offer of reimbursement between $5,000 - $10,000.

Presidential approval is required for any offer of reimbursement exceeding $10,000.

Exceptions for all moving and relocation reimbursements shall be approved by the President for campus employee reimbursement. Exceptions may result in taxable income to the employee.

Finally, reimbursement for any tax liabilities (“grossing up”) incurred by the employee as the result of receiving reimbursement for relocation expenses is prohibited.

Please let me know if you have any questions regarding this process. Please address any questions regarding the actual reimbursement process to the Payment Services Department at accounts_payable@csub.edu x2862.

KG:bf
100. Scope.

A. Current employees. Whenever a current CSU employee is required by the current appointing authority to change his/her permanent place of residence because of a change in assignment, promotion or other reason related to the employee’s duties deemed to be in the best interests of the CSU, such employee shall receive reimbursement for his/her actual, necessary and reasonable moving and relocation expenses. To qualify for reimbursement, the new primary job location must be at least 50 miles farther from the employee’s former home than the old primary job location.

The appointing authority may authorize exceptions to this requirement in cases where it creates unusual and unavoidable hardship for employees.

B. Initial appointments. An individual who has been offered a position within the CSU by an appointing authority and has accepted such appointment may receive reimbursement for his/her actual, necessary and reasonable moving and relocation expenses. This provision also applies to an employee of a CSU campus who accepts an ongoing assignment at another CSU campus. Moving and relocation expense reimbursements, including monetary thresholds, are authorized by the appointing authority at each campus for new appointees.

C. Temporary appointments. A current CSU employee who accepts a long-term temporary assignment offered by a CSU appointing authority other than his/her current appointing authority may receive a temporary relocation allowance. To receive consideration for this allowance, the employee’s temporary job location must be at least 50 miles farther from the employee’s permanent residence than the former job location. (The appointing authority for the temporary assignment may authorize exceptions to this requirement in cases where it creates unusual and unavoidable hardship for temporary employees.) The temporary employee must also maintain a permanent residence in the vicinity of the former job location for the duration of the temporary appointment.

Temporary relocation allowances will not be automatically authorized for every temporary appointee meeting the requirements identified above. The determination of who is to receive such an allowance, and the amount of any such allowance, shall be made by the temporary appointing authority subject to the requirements of these procedures.

D. Reimbursement of relocation expenses shall be payable from monies made available for such purpose by the appointing authority. In addition, relocation expenses incurred by newly-appointed Presidents shall be reimbursed by the appropriate campus.
101. Definitions.

For the purpose of these procedures, the following definitions will apply:

A. "Appointing authority" shall mean the Chancellor or campus President, as appropriate.

B. "Chancellor" and "President" shall include designees.

C. "Campus" shall include the headquarters office as well as any one of the campuses of the CSU.

D. "Household goods" means personal effects and items used or to be used in the employee's residence necessary for the maintenance of a household.

E. “Long term temporary assignment” shall normally mean an assignment period of six months or more.

F. "Employee" refers to either a current CSU employee or an individual who has been offered a position within the CSU by an authorized authority and has accepted such offer.

102. Reimbursement Expenses for Moving and Relocation.

Full or partial reimbursement, within budgetary constraints, may be allowed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred for packing, insurance, transportation, storage in transit (not to exceed 60 calendar days), and unpacking and installation of the employee's household goods at the new residence, when properly documented by itemized invoices and receipts. Should employees elect to move themselves, reimbursement for such moves may not exceed the costs that would have been incurred had a commercial firm been used.

An employee and spouse or domestic partner may be reimbursed for relocation travel expenses (defined as a one-way trip from the former residence to the general area of the new campus or other primary job location) in accordance with the CSU Travel Procedures and Regulations, with the exception of mileage which is to be reimbursed at the federal standard mileage rate for moving expenses if approved by the Chancellor. When authorized, travel expenses for spouses or domestic partners will be reimbursed on the same basis as travel expenses for employees.

An employee and spouse or domestic partner may be reimbursed for actual lodging expenses, supported by an itemized receipt, plus meal and incidental expenses in accordance with Appendix C of the CSU Travel Procedures and Regulations. When authorized, lodging, meal and incidental expenses for spouses or domestic partners will be reimbursed on the same basis as subsistence expenses for employees.

A. Moving and relocation expenses shall not be paid for more than 60 days unless the appointing authority has determined in advance that the search for a new residence will result in unusual and unavoidable hardship for an employee and spouse or domestic partner and, therefore, has granted an exception.

B. This reimbursement of expenses shall terminate immediately upon establishment of a permanent residence.
103. Procedure for Payment of Claims.

Itemized receipts or invoices verifying the actual costs and payment of a move shall be submitted directly by the employee to his/her appropriate appointing authority or designee.

If reimbursement is approved by the appointing authority, appropriate claim forms shall be submitted to the campus accounting office. The campus accounting office may reimburse the employee or carrier directly or submit the claim to the State Controller’s Office for payment.

The appointing authority may contract directly with a carrier for moving and relocation services.

104. Reimbursement for Sale of Residence.

Whenever an employee is required to change assignment and designated place of work which requires the sale of a residence, the employee may be reimbursed for actual and necessary selling costs as determined by prevailing practices within the area of sale. Claims for reimbursement must be substantiated by the seller’s closing escrow statement and other pertinent supportive documents. Actual and necessary selling costs may include:

- A. Brokerage commission;
- B. Title insurance;
- C. Escrow fees;
- D. Prepayment penalties;
- E. Taxes, charges and fees fixed by local authority required to consummate the sale of the residence; and
- F. Miscellaneous seller’s costs customary to the area that may be reimbursed if determined appropriate by the appointing authority.

Actual and necessary selling costs will be reimbursed for that portion of the dwelling the employee actually occupies if the employee owns and resides in a multi-family dwelling.

Claims for the sale of a residence must be submitted within one year following the date the employee reports to the new work location designated by the appointing authority. An extension may be granted by the appointing authority upon receipt of evidence warranting such extension.

Reimbursement for sale of a residence that does not conform to these procedures may be granted when the appointing authority has determined that reimbursement is reasonable in light of the individual circumstance and that the employee will otherwise be subject to hardship by reason of the change of residence.
105. Settlement of a Lease.

Whenever an employee is required to change an officially designated place of work and such change requires the settlement of a lease on the employee’s former residence, the employee may receive the actual and necessary cost of settlement of the unexpired lease of a maximum of one year.

Claims for settlement of a lease shall be documented and itemized and submitted to the appointing authority within six months following the new reporting date except that the appointing authority may grant an extension upon receipt of evidence warranting such extension prior to the expiration of the six-month period. Reimbursement shall not be allowed if the appointing authority determines that the employee knew or reasonably should have known that relocation was imminent before entering into a lease agreement.

106. Temporary Relocation Allowance.

A temporary relocation allowance to defer the cost of housing may be authorized for the duration of a temporary appointment as described in Section 100C. The allowance may be negotiated up to the maximum applicable federal per diem rate for the area. The allowance must conform with the procedures outlined in Section XI of the CSU Travel Procedures and Regulations. The full temporary relocation allowance paid to an employee as reimbursement must be supported by itemized receipts, lease agreement, or other documentation reflecting actual housing expenses. Reimbursement may be claimed by the employee, via the submission of appropriate receipts, no more frequently than once per month. Housing expenses for long-term temporary employees may also be paid directly by the temporary appointing authority, up to the maximum reimbursement level noted above.

107. Appointing Authority for Reimbursements.

The Chancellor or campus President shall approve, deny or grant exceptions for all moving and relocation reimbursements. The Chancellor or President may also authorize reimbursement for actual, necessary and reasonable relocation expenditures not identified in these procedures. Any such reimbursement shall be documented and paid in accord with established accounting practices and state and federal guidelines. Authorization from the Chancellor or President may not be delegated to a person in a position lower than the Principal Business Officer.

Reimbursement for any tax liabilities ("grossing up") incurred by the employee as the result of receiving reimbursement for relocation expenses is prohibited.

108. Repayment of Moving and Relocation Expenses Reimbursements.

If an employee whose moving or relocation expenses have been reimbursed does not continue his/her employment with the CSU for a period of at least two years (unless discontinuance of the employment was the result of death, disability or other similar unexpected cause beyond the control of the employee as determined by the appointing authority), the employee or appropriate representative shall repay the following percentage of the amount received for reimbursement for such moving and relocation expenses:

A. 100% if employed less than 6 months.
B. 75% if employed at least 6 months but less than 12 months.

C. 50% if employed at least 12 months but less than 18 months.

D. 25% if employed at least 18 months but less than 24 months.

This provision does not apply to temporary relocation allowances as described in Section 106.

109. Institution Responsibility.

Authorized moving and relocation expenses may result in taxable income to the employee pursuant to state and federal regulations.

The campus shall ensure that a copy of these procedures is given to the employee upon notice to the employee of an impending move.

110. Effect of Memorandum of Understanding on Internal Procedures.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Internal Procedures, if a Memorandum of Understanding entered into pursuant to the Higher Education Employer-Employee Relations Act is in conflict with these provisions, the terms of the Memorandum of Understanding and not the provisions of the Internal Procedures shall govern as to those employees covered by the Memorandum of Understanding.