Fellow in Focus: Maurice

As our College Corps Ambassador, Maurice supports fellows, strengthens our campus presence, and represents our community across the state. A returner from Cohort 3 and a biology major serving at Wind Wolves Preserve, you can see them leading a fun team activity below in February that sparked creativity and teamwork. We are so proud of their service and efforts!

Cultivate Change, Apply to Cohort 5

Applications for Cohort 5 are open! Join a growing community, build new skills, develop alongside peers, and earn $10,000 as you help your community bloom. The priority deadline for applications is June 1st.

Learn more at our website here and apply here or at the QR code below.

We'd Love to Meet You!

We're out in the community connecting with students to share what College Corps is and how it benefits both you and the community. We talk with students, answer questions, and highlight all the ways you can take part in meaningful service. Stop by our tabling events to learn more or send us an email if you're unable to attend. Our team is always happy to connect and guide you through the next steps.

Impact in Action

Our fellows continue to show genuine commitment to our community. Through their work with community host partners, they've helped uplift those around them and create a more connected community. As of March 2026, they've served the local community for:

28,876 hours
or 1,119 days
or 3.1 years
