

CSUB Children's Art Institute Rules of Conduct for Children on Campus

1. All children will respect their teachers and address them by their names.
2. No name-calling.
3. Children must actively participate in classes or will be asked to leave.
4. Children must currently be in upcoming grades 2-7 to participate
5. Children may eat food that they brought from home that is nut free and only when instructed by the teacher. No chewing gum is allowed in class.
6. No throwing objects or destruction of university property including art materials. This includes in the restrooms.
7. No profanity.
8. No personal electronic devices are allowed in use during class. This includes cell phones, tablets, MP3 players, games, etc.
9. Children may not touch other children.
10. Children must use good manners in class with their teachers and others in class.
11. Children may not interrupt teachers or others in class.
12. Children must assist in cleaning up after themselves and the class.
13. If children do not abide by the rules of conduct they will be dismissed from the university.
14. All children are to be dropped off and picked up on time at the designated location. The CSUB Children Art Institute and CSUB are not responsible for children outside of Art Camp time including before the start and after the completion of camp. It is unacceptable for parents to be late picking up or dropping off children to the day's activities, as it is an interruption to others. Parents may not have children meet them at a location not designated by Art Camp staff.

I understand and agree that my child will abide by these rules for Adventures in Art summer camp 2015 and may be asked to leave should they not comply:
