For this class students will be working as interns in CSUB's Legal Information and Support Clinic. Students will serve as undergraduate clinic interns and work with volunteer supervising attorneys to provide legal information and assistances to Kern County residents. Interested students will go through an application and interview process. Students will learn about legal ethics and adhere to all confidentiality agreements. Selected students will be enrolled through the Department of Political Science. Students will work primarily off-campus under the guidance of the participating law firm and/or organization. Students will work with CSUBs Pre-Law Program Director to fulfill all academic requirements. Students are expected to work 6 to 8 hours a week during the semester at the law office and/or organization they are assigned to. Students will be eligible to earn up to 3 credit hours. Students in this class will meet in person at CSUB at the time and place listed. Students will be expected to attend all class sessions in person in a classroom at the university.

For those students who are interested in teaching in the Elementary and Junior High setting: Placement will be in the Greenfield Union School District. Students in this class will be expected to attend one zoom session during the semester. This course provides early field experience to candidates pursuing a Multiple or Single Subject Credential. Through this course, candidates are provided with opportunities to observe, first-hand, the various learning characteristics of diverse learners across educational settings and to actively participate in a variety of instructional delivery systems that serve diverse student populations. This course is designed to provide the prospective teacher with a frame of reference for further work and study in a professional teaching career.
