Faculty Handbook section 305.4.1a states that performance reviews are required of faculty for purposes of retention, the award of tenure, and promotion. All faculty, except faculty who are awarded credit towards tenure, will undergo performance reviews in years 1, 2, 3, 5, and 6 of their probationary period. Faculty who are awarded credit towards tenure are reviewed every year. At any level of the 3rd year review, a request for a full review during the 4th year may be made as part of that review. The probationary faculty member may ask for a full review during the fourth year.
