

CSU Bakersfield

School of Social Sciences and Education

Position #:19/20 SSE 05

School Information:

The School of Social Sciences and Education currently houses eight departments. Visit the web page at <http://www.csub.edu/sse/> for additional information about the School's programs and the area.

Department Information:

With over 800 majors, the Department of Psychology has the capacity to prepare students well for the research and applied sides of psychology, but it is small enough for students to know their professors personally as caring teachers and mentors. Undergraduate students in Psychology complete an applied experience that helps them explore career options within the field. For more details, go to our website: <http://www.csub.edu/psychology>.

General Information:

California State University, Bakersfield, founded in 1970, is one of twenty-three campuses of the CSU System and currently has an enrollment of 9,700 students. The University services a socially and ethnically diverse population of 800,000 in an area of 10,000 square miles. The city of Bakersfield (population over 375,000) is located in the southern San Joaquin Valley and has a much lower cost of living than coastal California. Los Angeles, the Pacific Ocean, Mojave Desert, and Sierra Nevada Mountains are all within a two-hour drive from campus.

Application Deadline: Review of applications will begin on Jan. 1, 2019 and continue until the position is filled.

Required Qualifications: 1) Earned doctorate by August 20, 2019. 2) Potential for effective teaching. 3) Potential for a successful research program. 4) Ability to undertake effective, professionally-related service to the University and/or to the Community. 5) Ability to work effectively with faculty, staff, and students from diverse backgrounds.

Preferred Qualifications: Teaching experience, especially as instructor of record.

Responsibilities: The area of hire is quantitative psychology. Primary teaching responsibilities will be in statistics and research methods. Other course coverage by the new faculty member will depend upon the areas of expertise. The new faculty member will be expected to work collaboratively to help maintain a strong, student-centered program in psychology. In addition to teaching and academic advising, the faculty member will be expected to initiate and maintain an active research program involving undergraduate students. To become tenured, the faculty candidate will develop a continuous record of achievement in teaching, research, and professionally-related service.

Background Check: A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

Mandated Reporter: The person holding this position is considered a "mandated reporter" under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

Compensation: Commensurate with experience and qualifications. CSUB offers a generous benefit package (e.g., excellent health, dental, vision, and retirement benefits).

Application: Complete applications must include: 1) original and personalized cover letter addressing your qualifications for this position along with a brief research and teaching statement; 2) current vita; 3) copy of university transcripts verifying academic record and award of doctorate (or anticipated date of award); and 4) three (3) letters of reference. Additional references may be contacted by the Search & Screening Committee. Send your Application packet to Search & Screening Committee for Assistant Professor in Quantitative Psychology at the location address listed above or email to psychsearch@csub.edu.

Clery Act: CSUB's annual crime report includes statistics for the previous three years concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus, in certain off-campus centers, such as our Antelope Valley Satellite Campus and on property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from CSUB. The report also includes policies concerning security on campus, such as alcohol and drug use, crime prevention, reporting crimes, sexual assault and other subjects. Additionally, a daily log of offenses is maintained and can be reviewed at the front desk of the Department of Public Safety. You can obtain a copy of the annual report by contacting the Department of Public Safety and University Police at (661) 654-2111 or by logging on to their department website at <https://www.csub.edu/compliance/Clery/index.html>
