GE Oral Communication FYS Rubric

Speaker's Name _____ Time _____

Topic _____

	Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Approaching Expectations	Below Expectations	Comments
Statement of Purpose	Statement of purpose is precisely stated.	Statement of purpose is mostly clear.	Statement of purpose is deduced but not clearly stated.	Statement of purpose is missing or not appropriate to the assignment.
Structure	Introduction, conclusion, and sequenced material within the body are clearly established and makes the content of the presentation cohesive.	Most components of the intro., conclusion, & material within the body are est. and make the content of the presentation mostly cohesive.	Some components of the introduction, conclusion, & materials within the body are present, but missing requirements create a somewhat disjointed presentation.	Little to no structure is observable in the presentation, causing disconnected ideas or information in the presentation.
Verbal Fillers	No verbal fillers noticed.	Minimal verbal fillers used.	Somewhat distracting use of verbal fillers.	Constant use of um, uh, like, okay, yeah, or_____
Eye Contact	Strong eye contact with audience & dependency upon notes is not intrusive.	Eye contact is est. & and dependency upon notes is minimally noticeable.	Eye contact is partially established and dependency upon notes is somewhat obtrusive.	Eye contact is minimal established; dependency on notes is obtrusive.
Volume	Speaker is clear and varies volume for interest.	Speaker is mostly clear and easy to hear with good variation.	Speaker is audible, w/less variation.	Speaker is hard to hear or monotone.
Energy	Speaker is enthusiastic or passionate and engages with the audience.	Speaker appears mostly enthusiastic.	Speaker seems somewhat indifferent or uninterested.	Speaker seems unenthusiastic or hesitant which suggest unpreparedness.	