

Public History
INSTITUTE
at CSUB

BAKERSFIELD
COLLEGE

THE 1965 DELANO GRAPE STRIKE: EXPLORING NEW PERSPECTIVES

The Walter Stiern Library and Public History Institute, in partnership with Bakersfield College, will explore the 1965 Delano Grape Strike over three days of events, September 24-26, on the 50th anniversary of this milestone in American labor history.

The events at CSUB are intended to coincide with the United Farm Workers' celebration of the strike on Saturday, September 26, in Delano, and a number of events scheduled at Bakersfield College on Thursday, September 24.

Walter Presents Schedule

The public is invited to these free events held in the Dezember Reading Room of the Walter Stiern Library.

Friday, September 25

- 1 p.m., Documentary Film, Delano Manongs: Forgotten Heroes of the United Farmworkers, with director Marissa Aroy
- 1:30p.m.–3p.m., Panel Discussion: The History and Legacy of the Strike Activist Lorraine Agtang, Dr. Dawn Mabalon of San Francisco State University, Dr. Mario Sifuentez of University of California, Merced, and Dr. Todd Holmes, Post-Doctoral Scholar at Stanford University, will discuss the history and legacy of the Grape Strike.
- 3:30p.m.–5p.m., Authors Panel Dr. Matt Garcia, author of From the Jaws of Victory: The Triumph and Tragedy of Cesar Chavez and the Farm Worker Movement, and Miriam Pawel, author of The Union of Their Dreams, will discuss their award-winning research.

Public History Institute Presents

Admission for students of all ages will be free with I.D.

Saturday, September 26

- 7:30p.m., A play by Gary Soto, In and Out of Shadows. Doré Theatre.