In the traditional teacher preparation emphasis, students complete the Liberal Studies core curriculum and a minor or concentration in a discipline of their choice. Many students in this option will apply for and complete a one-year multiple subject credential program offered by CSUB or another CCTC-accredited school after graduation.