

Do you want to teach YOUNG CHILDREN (birth to 5 yrs. old) with special needs?

Obtain an Added Authorization in Early Childhood Special Education (ECSE-AA)

Who is eligible to obtain ECSE-AA?

- ✓ A valid Education Specialist Preliminary or Clear Credential Holder.
- ✓ Teacher candidates in an accredited Education Specialist Credential program.

When does the program begin?

- ✓ Classes begin Fall semester, 2022.
- ✓ A waiver or substitution of courses may be possible.
- ✓ Can complete the program within 2 semesters.

What are the required courses?

Course Number	Course Title
EDSP 5710 (3 units)	Young Children with Disabilities and Their Families
EDSP 5720 (3 units)	Assessment and Intervention/instructional Strategies: Birth through Pre-Kindergarten
EDSP 5730 (3 units)	Field Experience in Early Intervention and Early Childhood Special Education

For information regarding application process please contact:

- Ms. Julia Bavier, Credential's office, jbavier@csub.edu, 661.654.3193 (Bakersfield)
- Ms. Jenny St. George, jst-george@csub.edu, 661.952.5083 (Antelope Valley)

For information regarding the program please contact:

- Dr. Sarana Roberts, Director of Special Education Program, sroberts21@csub.edu, 661.654.2527

